Rick Charles Kaseweter, of La Pine, died unexpectedly in his sleep.

Rick was born in Seaside, Oregon and spent his early childhood in Cannon Beach. He later moved to La Pine. Rick was a veteran of the Vietnam War, where he earned several honorable medals. He served in the U.S. Army for five years as a heavy equipment repairman and stock control supervisor.

Working as a master plumber for 37 years, Rick started his career at Tokstad Pump & Plumbing Supply, which he later inherited as his own business. In 2002, Rick closed the business and went to work for Summit Plumbing, where he was currently employed.

He enjoyed hunting, fishing, fly tying, camping, woodworking and spending time with his family and friends. Rick was happily married to his wife, Peggy (Tokstad) for 37 years. He is survived by his wife; two daughters, Amber Daggett and Tiffany Hughes; two sons-in-law, Fred Daggett and Kasey Hughes; two granddaughters, Emilee and Autumn Daggett; his father, Bill Kaseweter; special father-in-law, Bill Tokstad; and sister, Nancy Chappell. He was preceded in death by his mother, Betty Kaseweter.

A Celebration of Life will be held in the spring. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made at any U.S. Bank branch to the Rick Kaseweter Memorial Fund.

Baird Memorial Chapel in La Pine is honored to have served the Kaseweter family.
