February 11, 1951 - July 28, 2012

In Loving Memory of a Wonderful Husband,

Father, Grandfather, Brother, Uncle and Friend.

Nick Ceniga of Sisters, passed away July 28, 2012, with his family by his side. Nick was born in Ontario, Oregon, to Frank and Joy Ceniga on February 11, 1951.

He was raised in Central Oregon, and graduated from Bend Senior High in 1969. He ran a family masonry company with his sons.

He leaves behind his wife of almost 40 years, Janet Ceniga, and children, Joshua (wife, Patience), Misty (husband, Kelly Christiansen), Gabriel (wife, Lindsay), Tyson (wife, Crystal); along with his seven grandchildren; and his three brothers, Kelly, Frank (Monty), and Tony Ceniga.

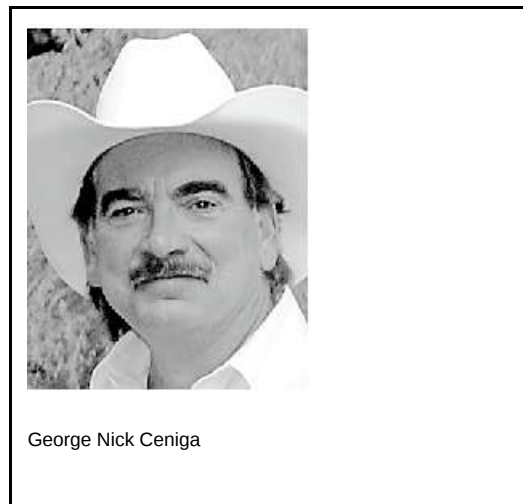

Nick was preceded in death by his parents, Frank and Joy Ceniga.

Nick enjoyed hunting, riding his Harley, and hanging out with family and friends. He loved to socialize and could walk into a room and befriend everyone. He also loved to dance and left a signature dance move that so many caught onto and began to call the 'Uncle Nick.' He was always ready to have fun and be there whenever or wherever you needed him.

All his loved ones have memories to cherish and he will forever be in our hearts. Nick always said "Family is everything," and he will be greatly missed.

For those who would like to attend, a memorial service will be held on Saturday, August 4, 2012, at 1:00 p.m. at the Bend Senior Center at 1600 SE Reed Market Road, Bend, OR.
